Your receivables, in order.

Fibek is a platform with AI agents connected to your ERP. It prioritizes collections, follows up and reconciles payments. Your team supervises and decides.

For B2B companies that sell on credit.

Selling on credit drives growth. Collecting it is the hard part.

Receivables in Excel | Manual collections | Unidentified payments | Credit limits in the dark.

Balances, conversations and payments need to be connected.

You know what to collect, from whom and when.

Connect all receivables. Prioritize each account. Follow up and reconcile payments.

Your team stays in control.

Three AI agents work your receivables.

Analyst: suggests priorities and reports. Communication and Collections: follows up and records commitments. Payments: matches receipts and invoices.

Your team supervises and approves.

Syscom nearly doubled collections in three months.

Monthly collections: 5,000 M > 10,000 M COP.

Overdue balances: 32 % > 24 %.

Fibek connects to your ERP. Your operation keeps moving.

ERP and invoices | WhatsApp, email and calls | Bank and receipts.

We learn your operation, connect your tools, set up agents and support your team.

We were born selling on credit.

Fibek grew out of PapelArca, its founder's family wholesale distribution business. We lived the problem before building the solution.

For B2B wholesalers and distributors that sell on credit.

Two ways to work with Fibek.

Usage-based license: your team runs Fibek. Managed service: Fibek operates with you.

In both models, your team keeps the decisions.

Let's talk about what happens between invoices and cash.
